PARIS

Le Tour Open is a great way to see many Paris sights in one day.

Notre Dame Cathedral

The Eiffel Tower at night is quite a sight to see. The most perfect time to visit is after 6 p.m., when the air is cool and the crowds have thinned. Strobe lights go off on the hour at 10 pm, 11 pm, and midnight. Many locals and tourists enjoy the show from the grassy area where this picture was taken.

Eiffel Tower

Paris is the capital and largest city of France. Straddling the Seine River in the country's north, it is a major global cultural and political center in addition to being the world's most visited city. Nicknamed "The City of Light" since the 19th Century, Paris also has a reputation as a "romantic" city and the "heart of Europe". The most recognizable symbol of Paris is the 1,063 ft. Eiffel Tower located on the banks of the Seine.

Dear Mr Philips,

I am writing to you in order to make a proposal as to how the school might be improved. I believe that changing the school bell to a music system would help to make the school a better place for the pupils and the staff.

Although the school bell is traditional, music would create a more positive atmosphere around school. Music could inspire the pupils and influence them by motivating and encouraging focus. After all, if students are happy with their learning environment, they are more likely to achieve higher grades.

Through installing a speaker system that would project music around the school, pupils would become more involved in school life and take more interest in the school itself. This would make the overall experience more enjoyable for pupils, staff and visitors. Pupils could vote and select representatives who would be in charge of choosing the music. This would teach pupils new skills and could build a rapport between staff and students. Important announcements can be made through the speaker system and the mood of the school could be dictated by the type of music you play. For a small donation, pupils could request music and the proceeds could go to improving the school or to a charity.

Of course the school bell works. There's no confusion over what the bell means: generations reminisce over the 'good old days' and often include the school bell when referring back. However, the school bell was once new, but now it's old and out-dated.

Overall, I strongly believe that the majority of pupils will appreciate listening to music between lessons and it will improve school life. Thank you for considering my ideas. I look forward to hearing your opinions on this matter.

Yours sincerely,

Lara Jones

Resource 2A – Poetry Slam

What is a poetry slam?

A poetry slam is a poetry competition where poets recite/perform their poem in front of an audience. Your classmates and children from other classes from Trust will be your audience and judges.

When is the poetry slam?

While you are home learning, the poetry slam will not take place face-to-face. You will be required to record your performance/recital and upload it for your classmates to see. More details about this will follow.

On Wednesday the 24th June 2020, you will watch your classmate's poems and vote for your favourite to determine your class winner.

On Thursday the 25th of June 2020, you will watch the winning poems from all the Year 4 classes in Belleville, Belleville Wix, Churchfields and The Alton, and vote for your favourite to determine a Q1E Trust winner.

When will I write my poem?

As part of your English home learning, in weeks 2 and 3, you will be learning about poetry and will write your poem. You do not need to think about your poem just yet.

Resource 2B – Model Texts

The purpose to both text types is persuading someone to come to a music concert.

Letter

Dear Mrs Ford,

Music concerts are wonderful events for musicians to display their talents. This year, all Year 4 children have learnt how to play a brass, string or woodwind instrument. The end of year concert has always been seen as a highlight of the year and it is not to be missed!

We know how hard you have been working recently, so we believe you need a break from your busy routine. We would like to invite you to a special, five-star music concert in Meteor Hall on Thursday the 6th of June at 11am. Please add this date to your diary; this is an experience to remember that you will not want to miss!

As you are aware, all year, Year 4 has been working hard on learning new instruments and mastering various different types of music. After over two terms of practice, you have let us play together with 120 children, performing on 10 different instruments. If you come to the concert, you will be able to escape the stress of work, as we play you beautiful, relaxing compositions.

We guarantee that if you come to our 40-minute concert, you will be warmed by jazz music such as Boogie Shoes and Take Five. We wish to share with you the notes and tunes that we have learnt. We believe you should come and see the results of our hard work because it was you who kindly organised this outstanding event. If you do not come, you will miss this once-in-a-lifetime event – all for the sake of 40 minutes!

We hope you will consider joining us for this wonderful occasion. We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours sincerely,

Ms A Student

Resource 3A – Persuasive Devices

1. Address the person directly and repeat the name to hold their attention.
(Now listen Mrs Smith,..., Another reason, Mrs Smith..., Mrs Smith, I'm sure you will agree that...)
2. Use examples to prove why your suggestion is the right one.
Link it to personal experiences or other stories you have heard.
(From my experience..., I've been to one and...)
3. Exaggerate – but not too much!
(Everyone knows that..., This once in a lifetime experience..., It will be the greatest poetry slam of all time...,)
4. Use a conclusion to summarise your opinions
5. Use persuasive language and sentence starters. See below for examples:

In my opinion...

I am certain...

As a matter of fact...

You ought to...

I believe we should...

Would you consider...

It will be worthwhile if...

I strongly suggest...

I truly believe...

It will be an advantage if...

I'm sure you agree...

People all over the world understand that...

I feel extremely confident that...

However...

Without a doubt...

In addition...

One argument is...

Only a fool would think that...
