	Day 1 Activity	Day 2 Activity	Day 3 Activity	Day 4 Activity	Day 5 Activity
Writing	Listen to Chapters 3 and 4 of The Story Thief. Answer these questions about the text: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Why did most animals 'steer clear' of Osebo the Leopard? Why did Osebo pretend that he didn't want to play with Anansi? How did Anansi trick Osebo? What is molasses? Why did Anansi cover the monkey with it? How did Anansi trick Mmoatia the fairy to touch the monkey? What is your opinion of Anansi? Has it changed since the start of the book? Predict, how will Nyame react when Anansi returns? 	This week you will be creating your own animal character and writing an additional chapter for The Story Thief. This chapter will focus on another animal that Anansi has to capture before returning to Nyame the Sky God. Create your animal character (2B). Remember to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Choose an African animal (2A) - Give it a personality trait e.g. bored, strong, lazy, hungry, greedy, competitive - Create descriptive phrases using expanded noun phrases and figurative language Now, think about what problem the character will have and how Anansi will use that problem to trick it. E.g. hornets don't have a home so Anansi makes one, leopard is bored so she offers them a game	Today you are going to plan your chapter of The Story Thief. Recap the 3 main events that occur in chapters 2, 3 and 4 of The Story Thief. The chapters follow a very similar pattern. Think: Why is it so helpful to have a familiar, repeated structure when retelling a story orally? Plan your narrative, character description and dialogue using Resource 3A Remember to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - add details (description, reasons, facts) - use synonyms for 'said' and adverbs - add actions - plan fronted adverbials 	Read through your plan and take time to orally rehearse your writing. Your plan should cover: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Anansi meeting and describing the animal character - Anansi tricking the animal which includes dialogue between Anansi and the animal - Anansi capturing the animal of evidence for Nyame Write your narrative with dialogue. Remember to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - include narrative paragraphs, to tell the story and describe the animal - use fronted adverbials - use correct speech punctuation - use synonyms for said and adverbs - add actions to move the narrative forward - use synonyms for 'Anansi' 	Read through your narrative from yesterday. Does it follow the same three-part structure of the other tricks? Edit and revise your work. Focus on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Improving your description of the animal character - Speech punctuation for the dialogue Publish your work by typing it and illustrating it with images or use the special publishing sheets below.
